SOURCE:

A thorough screening of all Party members was started by order of the Central Committee of the Polish Workers' Unity Party (PZPR) on 15 May 1949. This screening, which is to be completed by 15 September 1949, is conducted in each community by the so-called "Political Three". This commission is composed of one district representative, one district secretary and one community secretary of the PZPR. Party members considered unreliable or not sufficiently active are expelled from the party.
